EVENT DETAILS (See actual schedule in newsletter.):

Thursday activities:

National Museum of the Pacific War: Admiral Nimitz said in 1945 “Uncommon valor was a common virtue.” The National Museum of the Pacific War is dedicated to honoring, teaching and preserving this chapter of our nation’s history. Fredericksburg, TX was founded in 1846 and is the unofficial capital of the Texas Hill County. The town has maintained its charm by preserving the architecture and institutions of historical importance and encouraging the development of Main Street’s shops, galleries, brew pubs and restaurants.

Friday activities:

39th Flying Training Squadron (FTS): The 39th FTS will, once again, host the Association at their headquarters on Randolph AFB. They plan a catered lunch and are working on a couple of tour possibilities. We can all look forward to a great visit. We will have everyone back to the hotel so they have time to rest up before the dinner cruise.

River Cruise Dinner: We have contracted for one boat, limit 20 people. Reservations will be filled based on the date I receive your Reunion Registration form.

Saturday activities:

Annual Business Meeting and Memorial Service: The FRIO III Room from 9:30am to 11:00am.

The rest of the day is open to allow you to just “veg out” or enjoy some of the suggestions in the newsletter.

Banquet: The banquet will be held in the FRIO III Room. Happy hour is from 5:30 to 6:00pm with dinner and program from 6:00 to 8:00pm. The Hospitality Room will be open the rest of the evening.
